DELIVERING CUTTING-EDGE GRADUATE AND CONTINUING EDUCATION
THAT MEETS THE NEEDS OF OUR REGION'S EMPLOYERS

Texas A&M University-Texarkana (TAMUT), part of the world-class Texas A&M University System, is a comprehensive regional university committed to academic excellence and community leadership to the more than 2,000 students it serves each year. The Texarkana metropolitan area is developing top-tier talent for the entire region one degree at a time.

"While preparing our students to be leaders in a global society and to excel in their chosen fields of study, we at Texas A&M University-Texarkana are ever mindful of the needs of our regional employers. The collaboration between our university and the businesses and industry in our region is key to our economic prosperity. Serving as a 'brain magnet' to attract and retain bright young people is an economic driver that is the lifeblood of the Texarkana region."
